

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
TAMPA DIVISION

AMBER SORG,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 8:20-cv-2314-CPT

KILOLO KIJAKAZI,
Acting Commissioner of Social Security,¹

Defendant.

ORDER

Before the Court is the Plaintiff's unopposed motion for attorney's fees pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act (EAJA or the Act). (Doc. 32). For the reasons discussed below, the Plaintiff's motion is granted.

I.

The Plaintiff initiated this action in October 2020, seeking judicial review of the Commissioner's decision denying her application for Disability Insurance Benefits and Supplemental Security Income. (Doc. 1). In February 2022, the Commissioner moved for the entry of a judgment in the Plaintiff's favor and asked that the case be remanded pursuant to sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g). (Doc. 29). The Court granted that motion (Doc. 30), and the Clerk of Court entered Judgment for the Plaintiff shortly thereafter (Doc. 31). The instant motion, unopposed by the Commissioner, followed. (Doc. 32).

II.

The EAJA authorizes a court to grant attorney's fees and costs to any party prevailing in litigation against the United States (including proceedings for judicial review of agency action), unless the court determines that the government's position was "substantially justified" or that special circumstances exist that make such an award unjust. 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d). To warrant an award of attorney's fees and costs under the Act, three conditions must be met: (1) a party must file a fee application within thirty days of the final judgment; (2) a party must qualify as the prevailing party and her net worth must not have exceeded $2,000,000 at the time she filed the action; and (3) the government's position must not have been substantially justified and there must be no other special circumstances that would render such an award unjust. Id.; Patton v. Berryhill, 2017 WL 6520474, at *1 (M.D. Fla. Dec. 18, 2017) (citing Myers v. Sullivan, 916 F.2d 659, 666–67 (11th Cir. 1990)).

Each of these conditions has been satisfied here, as the Commissioner effectively acknowledges by her lack of opposition. Thus, a grant of attorney's fees and costs pursuant to the EAJA is appropriate in this matter.

To determine the amount of fees to be authorized, courts look to subsection 2412(d)(2)(A), which provides, in relevant part:

The amount of fees [to be] awarded [to the prevailing party in any civil action brought against any agency or any official of the United States] shall be based upon [the] prevailing market rates for the kind and quality of the services furnished, except that . . . attorney[’s] fees shall not be awarded in excess of $125 per hour unless the court determines that an increase in the cost of living or a special factor, such as the limited availability of qualified attorneys for the proceedings involved, justifies a higher fee.

28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(2)(A).

As reflected by this statutory language, the determination of the proper hourly rate under the Act involves a two-part analysis. First, courts must assess the market rate for similar services provided by lawyers of comparable skill, experience, and reputation. Meyer v. Sullivan, 958 F.2d 1029, 1033 (11th Cir. 1992) (quoting Norman v. Hous. Auth. of Montgomery, 836 F.2d 1292, 1299 (11th Cir. 1988)). Second, if the prevailing market rate exceeds $125 per hour, courts must decide whether to adjust the hourly rate for an increase in the cost of living or some special factor. Id. at 1033–34.

The market rate during the relevant period for the type of work at issue in this case is not subject to precise calculation. In the Court’s experience, counsel submitting EAJA fee petitions for services performed during and after 2020 have typically sought hourly rates ranging from $175 to more than $200. Accordingly, the hourly rate charged by competent attorneys in this market has, for some time, exceeded the statutory cap of $125. The Court is not alone in this observation. See, e.g., Beacham ex rel. Beacham v. Comm’r of Soc. Sec., 2020 WL 8083591, at *1 (M.D. Fla. Nov. 19, 2020), report and recommendation adopted, 2021 WL 82845 (M.D. Fla. Jan. 11, 2021); Langer ex

rel. Langer v. Comm’r of Soc. Sec., 2020 WL 7210026, at *4 (M.D. Fla. Nov. 20, 2020), report and recommendation adopted, 2020 WL 7138571 (M.D. Fla. Dec. 7, 2020); Cruz-Fernandez v. Comm’r of Soc. Sec., 2020 WL 6585598 (M.D. Fla. Nov. 10, 2020). The Court thus finds it appropriate to deviate upwardly from the EAJA’s base fee rate to account for increases in the cost of living.

Courts in this district and elsewhere routinely calculate cost of living adjustments under the Act by using the Bureau of Labor Statistics’s Consumer Price Index (CPI). See, e.g., Wilborn v. Comm’r of Soc. Sec., 2013 WL 1760259, at *1 (M.D. Fla. Apr. 24, 2013); Rodgers v. Astrue, 657 F. Supp. 2d 1275, 1277 (M.D. Fla. 2009); Morrison v. Astrue, 2010 WL 547775, at *2 (S.D. Fla. Feb. 12, 2010);² see also Sprinkle v. Colvin, 777 F.3d 421, 428 (7th Cir. 2015) (collecting various circuit court opinions using the CPI to determine hourly rate adjustments). Given this case authority, the Court finds it reasonable to use the CPI as a guide for determining cost of living increases under the EAJA. See U.S. DEP’T OF LABOR, BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS, <https://data.bls.gov/cgi-bin/surveymost?bls> (last visited March 4, 2022).

Here, the Plaintiff seeks $6,277.12 in attorney’s fees based upon a total of thirty hours expended in this action in 2020 and 2021 by her lawyer, Jeanette Kelley, at the hourly rates of $207.50 in 2020 and $208.75 in 2021. (Doc. 32 at 2–3; Doc. 32-1). In support of this fee request, the Plaintiff submits, among other materials, an itemized schedule of the services Ms. Kelley has rendered in this case. (Doc. 32-1).

Upon due consideration of the matter, the Court finds that the total number of hours and the hourly rate claimed by counsel are reasonable and warranted. As a result, the Plaintiff is entitled to an award of $6,277.12 in attorney's fees.

III.

In light of the above, it is hereby ORDERED:

1. The Plaintiff's unopposed motion for attorney's fees pursuant to the EAJA (Doc. 32) is granted.
2. The Plaintiff shall be awarded attorney's fees in the amount of $6,277.12.
3. In accordance with Astrue v. Ratliff, 560 U.S. 586, 598 (2010), the Commissioner's remittance of this sum shall be made payable to the Plaintiff. If the Commissioner concludes that the Plaintiff does not owe any debt to the government, the Commissioner may honor an assignment of fees to the Plaintiff's lawyer.

SO ORDERED in Tampa, Florida, this 7th day of March 2022.

HONORABLE CHRISTOPHER P. TUITE
United States Magistrate Judge
